

The Land Between

MINISTRIES

NEWSLETTER

VOLUME XIV ISSUE NO. 1 — APRIL 2021

Masters of Cancel Culture

— by, Joel Francis, Th.M. © 2021

MAO ZEDONG: ONE WHO DEMANDED WORSHIP

Mao said: “The Communist Party must control the guns.”
 — The US is falling fast into Communism, as the government’s “solution” to protecting us from attacks is to take away our rights to self-defense. Another sign the US is becoming a carbon copy of Communism is that one highly paid government bureaucrat, with close ties to multi-billionaires, has become the dictator over a key aspect of healthcare. Any dissent from this quasi-worshiped government “expert” is met with harsh derision and the canceling of Free Speech.

I have met numerous victims of Communism, including a very kind Chinese pastor. This man’s “crime” was believing in Jesus Christ, as this was a perceived threat to Mao Zedong. The Communists tortured him by lifting him off the ground by his thumbs tied behind his back, including many other forms of torture. As with all Communists, China accuses Christians of false charges such as being an enemy of the state or an insurrectionist. Once Mao had control of the guns, he went on to kill millions of Chinese Christians. Mao criticized the USA of “imperialism” and “exploitation” yet his Party today has global reach and has exploited and murdered tens of millions of people.

Chairman Mao claimed to empathize with Blacks in the US. What liberals fail to admit is that Mao created many anti-Black immigration policies. Mao and his backers exploited the suffering of the US Black community for their own gain. Mao enacted this brutal “Cancel Culture” after being put into power by elite wealthy Westerners. These men were experts in media, propaganda, and finance. They hated Jesus Christ and His followers. Mao was a willing tool for these globalists.

THE POPULAR TV HOST & 1,500 ISRAELI RABBIS

During a recent program, a popular US TV news host, Tucker Carlson, spoke out against the strategy of flooding the US with immigrants in order to disenfranchise current voters. [1] The “Cancel Culture” reaction to him was fast and harsh. [2] The CEO of a Jewish advocacy group falsely accused Tucker of advocating for white supremacy. Tucker, meanwhile, repeatedly made clear he was not supporting white supremacy.

This CEO, with a listed salary of over $815,000 [3] did not stop with the baseless white supremacy charge. He called for Tucker to be fired — a.k.a., Canceled. This influential CEO, and his NGO, have succeeded in “canceling” other influencers over perceived threats in the past.

Tucker is pro-Zionist and he found support from over 1,500 traditional orthodox Israeli rabbis. As reported in a major Israeli paper, these rabbis wrote a strong letter to this powerful Jewish NGO, stating it had committed, “grossly misplaced charges of antisemitism” and that the NGO had become “markedly partisan” under this current CEO. [4]

These orthodox rabbis had several good reasons to write such a strong letter:

1. Anti-Semitism is real and has tragically lead to violence, as seen in several synagogue shootings.
2. When Jewish leaders falsely accuse others of anti-Semitism or white supremacy, and try to “cancel” someone’s career, it only feeds a growing resentment of those supporting “Cancel Culture.”
3. Further, this growing resentment against false accusations of racism and canceling of Free Speech can lead victims to wrongly view all Jews as supporters of Cancel Culture.

JEWS DIFFER ON THE SAME TOPIC

There are a growing number of Anti-Semites who claim Cancel Culture is a Jewish versus Gentile battle. Anti-Semites often fail to see that the Cancel Culture battle has long been alive even within the Judaic community. Here are two recent examples:

First, Joel Pollak, an observant Jew, is a talented communicator who recently wrote an article, “POLLAK: I’M A JEW. STOP CALLING ME AN ANTISEMITE”. [5] In this article, Pollak gives many good reasons why it is fallacious to consider Trump and his supporters as bigots and anti-Semitic. He also points out that Breitbart News was founded in Israel by two Jewish men: Andrew Breitbart and Larry Solov.

Liberal Jews who claim Breitbart News is anti-Semitic or supports “white supremacy” are grossly inaccurate.

The majority of Jews in the US are liberal as ~78%+

...support abortion and other Democrat Party causes. [6] Although I am a conservative, I stand with the liberal Jews who disagree with the Dec. 2019 Executive Order (EO) by President Trump which was touted as being against anti-Semitism on college campuses. However, liberal Jewish groups correctly saw Trump's EO as curbing the Free Speech rights of Jewish students. [7]

However, the EO supporters, including many conservative Jews, in classic Hegelian dialectical style claim it does not take away Free Speech rights. But, this EO does firmly remove the Free Speech rights of Jews and others. Jews on campuses are no longer allowed to publicly support the Boycott, Divestiture, and Sanctions (BDS) movement that protests against the State of Israel's maltreatment of Palestinians, etc. Further, this EO recognizes US Jews as a protected "nationality."

The State of Israel not only denigrates Palestinians, it has supported the racist Apartheid government of South Africa through arms and technology sales, etc. [8] [9] The oppressed South Africans have not forgotten this relationship. [10]

Today, Americans, whether conservative or liberal, should be free to boycott the State of Israel or any nation without losing speaking fees or government contracts.

I have paid my respects to Jews and others who were killed in Mauthausen, a Nazi concentration camp. After seeing the horrific result of where canceling freedom of expression takes a nation, no Jew should ever be canceled for speaking against or boycotting whatever they choose. Hitler loved and used "Cancel Culture."

MASTERS OF CANCEL CULTURE

In the first century, Saul was also an advocate for Cancel Culture. Saul was an elite in the Judaic culture: "... a Hebrew of Hebrews, as concerning the law, a Pharisee." [11]

He was also a violent blasphemer, and a persecutor. [12] Clarke's commentary states he desired to exterminate all believers in Christ.

One of the victims of Saul's violence was Stephen, a Holy Spirit filled man from Saul's culture. Culturally, Saul & Stephen were very similar, but spiritually they were kingdoms apart. Stephen knew the Tanakh (Genesis—Malachi) just as Saul did, however Stephen correctly interpreted the prophets who spoke of Jesus Christ as the One despised, rejected, and wounded for our transgressions. [13]

Stephen's final speech in Acts 7 exemplifies that followers of Jesus Christ, when persecuted, courageously speak the Truth in love.

Saul would later become a believer in Jesus Christ. The Apostle Paul (fmr. Saul) went from canceling (killing) to being a persecuted ambassador of the King of kings. [14]

Joe Rogan recently asked a popular orthodox Jew, Ben Shapiro, "What do you think he (Jesus) was?" Shapiro answered, "Historically, I believe he was a Jew who tried to lead a revolt against the Romans and got killed for His trouble..." [15] Shapiro's sources are wrong. Jesus and His followers never revolted against the Romans. In fact, Jesus returned in great power via the Romans in 70 AD to judge Jerusalem & the temple, fully ending the Old Covenant system, exactly as Jesus prophesied 40 years prior. [16] Those who called for the deaths of Jesus and Stephen were masterful propagandists even as Saul was prior to his conversion.

Today's media & liberal leaders are trying to cancel all conservatives by falsely accusing them of racism, violence, and revolt. Similar lies and false accusations were used in the murder of over 65 million Russian Christians. [17]

Judaics today, like Saul, not only misinterpret the Tanakh (OT) they also believe their god gave revelations on Sinai that went far beyond the Ten Commandments and the Mosaic laws. These alleged revelations became the "traditions of men" that Jesus, and later the Apostle Paul, firmly rejected. [18]

Two current examples of man-made traditions are:

1. The "7 Noahide Laws" — which are not Scriptural.
2. Two successive redeemer messiahs will come: Ben-Joseph and Ben-David. On April 7, 2021, at a large Jewish event in Florida, "Ben Shapiro graciously accepted the task of delivering the message of Moschiach's [messiah] arrival." [19]

In stark contrast, the Apostle Paul, wrote to Timothy from prison, reminding Timothy what his mother and grandmother had taught him:

"...and that since childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise unto salvation through the faith that is in Christ Jesus." [20]

Salvation is not by status or race, but by faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. God's love through Jesus Christ cannot be canceled.